

AXS Investments Shortlisted in Several Categories in this Year's With Intelligence ETF and Mutual Fund Awards

Firm selected for its innovative and aggressive product expansion efforts, successful launch of its first ETF, the AXS Astoria Inflation Sensitive ETF (PPI)

NEW YORK, June 6, 2022– AXS Investments, a leading asset manager providing access to alternative investments for growth, income and diversification, today proudly marks that the firm has been shortlisted in three categories in this year's With Intelligence ETF and Mutual Fund Awards.

- Newcomer ETF Firm of the Year – AXS Investments. Given to the most successful new ETF issuer who launched their first US ETF on or after Jan. 1 2021 as determined by a combination of several elements, including flows, performance and innovation.
- Newcomer Alternative ETF of the Year – AXS Astoria Inflation Sensitive ETF \(PPI\). Given to the most successful ETF providing exposure to non-traditional investments launched on or after Jan. 1, 2021. Success is determined by a combination of several factors, such as flows, fund objectives and innovation.
- Newcomer ETF of the Year – PPI. Given to the most successful ETF launched in 2020 as determined by a combination of several elements, such as flows, performance, innovation, and fund objectives. ETFs launched are eligible for entry.

"We're thrilled to have been named to the shortlists in these prestigious categories. Investor response to PPI, our first ETF under the AXS banner, has been very strong; and while we are a 'newcomer' as a firm, our team has decades of experience in the ETF space, having founded, built and grown some of the most innovative brands in the industry," said Greg Bassuk, CEO of AXS Investments. "We wish all the nominees the best of luck, and we're eager to continue to keep the industry and investors of all types apprised as we add to the AXS story."

There is no guarantee the sectors or asset classes the advisor identifies will benefit from inflation. Fund may invest a larger portion of its assets in one or more sectors than many other funds, and thus will be more susceptible to negative events affecting those sectors.

Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the ETF. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. NAVs are calculated using prices as of 4:00 PM Eastern Time. The closing price is the midpoint between the bid and ask price as of the close of exchange. Closing price returns do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times.
